REGISTER OF GRADUATES

The Library School was organized in November, 1892, with a class of ten students. Since that date, there have been enrolled in the classes 254 students, including those taking the full and special courses. The graduates of the full course number 167. In addition, six partial certificates were granted to students of the first and second classes who had completed either the course in cataloging or that in library economy. After June, 1894, the certificates for partial courses were discontinued. Twenty students are now admitted to the School each year

The register includes a list of students who have received certificates, and gives the year in which they were graduated, their library record since graduation, and offices in local library associations.
